VOL. VI. NO. 45.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1900.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

HORSES AT NASHVILLE.

Quite a large number of horses have passed the winter at Cumberland Park sufficient to insure a good meeting even in the improbable event that no others were sent to Nashville to take part in the meeting next April and May. Of the condition of the more prominent of the horses now there a letter to Morning Telegraph says:

"The open winter has enabled the trainers at Nashville to keep their horses constantly at exercise since the first of December, and in consequence all are fairly well forward with their preparation for the time of year, and, moreover, are in a thrifty healthy condition."

"A stroll among the thoroughbreds at Cumberland Park discloses the fact that several unusually promising three-year-olds are in training, and that, with possibly two or three exceptions, they are in fine shape and well advanced in their work. It is surmised that from the way some of them are coming to hand they are being pointed for the Turf Congress Special, to be run on the opening day of the Nashville meeting. This race is for three-year-olds, one mile and an eighth, and was formerly called the Cumberland Prize. It was established in 1893, and has invariably attracted a good class of horses."

"Thompson Brothers, owners of Sidney Lucas, have a racy looking colt in the three-year-old Kolim, by Inspector B.—Tommie Bell. He is in John Johnson's stable and won four races in 1899, in which he defeated such good ones as Shrove Tuesday, John Yerkes and Ida Fordham. Johnson himself owns a pretty shifty three-year-old filly in May S., by Inspector B.—Tattoo. She won three or four races last season, defeating some of the best two-year-old fillies in the west."

"One of the best three-year-olds here is the bay colt Pharoah, in George Hendrie's stable. He has been doing strong work since the middle of January, is hard as rocks and looks like ready money. He won several good races last year, and is a son of Falsetto, one of the fastest horses of his day. In the same stable are two three-year-old fillies by Tammany—Tampion, a maiden, and Talala, a winner last season. The latter is out of Wood Violet, and looks as if she would race well this season."

"Mrs. C. Van Studdiford has a promising pair of three-year-olds in Sidbow, a stake winner last year, and Woodtrice. They have come through the winter in splendid shape and are taking their work with a relish. Both were winners last year, and from the way they are coming on it is freely predicted that they will be able to repeat the trick in 1900. Sidbow is meant for the Turf Congress Special."

"Harry Stover is convinced that he has a fair sort of Derby colt in Edinborough, although he was not successful in his races last year. He shows considerable improvement, and in his trials has given a satisfactory account of himself. The chances are altogether favorable that he will race well this season."

"William Weir's three-year-old Pirate of Penzance colt, Mr. Biffin, is training nicely. He was successful in only one of his races last year, but the way he has improved in winter quarters encourages his trainer to believe that he will do much better the coming season. Lizzie McCarthy in the same stable, a three-year-old daughter of Patron, is coming on in the right way and promises to be useful. The best three-year-old in the string, however, is Ida Fordham, a good winner last season. She has not grown a great deal, but has thickened out some and apparently has all her speed."

"It is understood that Tom Scott is giving Ida Ledford a special preparation for the Turf Congress Special. While she has not grown much, she has wintered well, and is, perhaps, nearer a race than any horse at the Nashville track. She was a good winner in 1899 and is as sound as a new dollar."

"Hicaway, a gelding that won four races last season, in which he met and defeated Sidney Lucas, Advance Guard and others, must have attained his full growth in his second year, as he has not grown any during the winter; but he is quite big enough, being sixteen hands high, and as he is in perfect order and sound, he is counted on to more than win his way during the coming season. He is in Ed Moore's stable."

"Mannion & Connell's John Halsey is a much improved colt and his stable people think a lot of him. He won four races last season, and in fourteen starts was placed ten times. He has a world of speed and looks as if he would stand a lot of wear and tear."

"Scott Harlan has three three-year-old fillies in his stable, neither of which has ever won a race. Only one of them has ever started, Clipsetta, by Clarendon—Margo, a filly of a fine turn of speed and good appearance. The others are a black filly by Top Gallant and a chestnut filly by Tattler. It is said that the Top Gallant filly has the most speed of the trio, but, as she has never raced must be classed as an unknown quantity. She and Clipsetta will probably strip for the Turf Congress Special."

"Hume Desha has quite a good filly in a three-year-old full sister to Kusja. Johnny Gardner's two three-year-olds, Alpaca and Left Bower, both winners last year, are in the best of shape and are showing exceedingly well in their work. George Strobel's three-year-old candidate is the filly Miss Fensoland. She has improved to a marked degree and is training well."

"Bangle has wintered very well at Avondale Farm, where for the past two or three months he has been required to do his six or eight miles a day under saddle. Always a glutton for work, his owner has found it necessary to keep him at exercise constantly between seasons, and in consequence of this treatment the horse is in vigorous health and hard as rocks. A visitor at the farm a day or two ago says the son of Iroquois—Breechit has never looked so well since he first felt the weight of a saddle, which is saying quite a good deal, for few horses ever looked better than Bangle did last spring. Mr. Gardner will send Bangle and ten other horses to Cumberland Park in March to go into the hands of Trainer Tomlinson. He has already shipped Shrove Tuesday to Memphis, where she will be prepared by W. H. Robinson for the Tennessee Oaks. This filly won five races last year, and her wonderful improvement in winter quarters indicates that she will do as well or better this season. One of the best looking yearlings ever bred at Avondale is a colt by Himyar out of Soubrette, by Farandole. He would attract attention in a bunch of a hundred good looking youngsters."

EASTERN RACING DATES.

The stewards of the Jockey Club met at their office in New York Monday and settled the long-delayed assignment of racing dates to the clubs under its jurisdiction. Heretofore the New York season proper has ended with the first of November, but the necessity of providing dates for the autumn meeting of the new Empire City Club led to its extension this year to November 15. The new club has been given from October 22 to November 3—twelve racing days in all. Aqueduct suffers by this to the extent of having its fall meeting restricted to ten days, five less than last year. Saratoga was given the

Winner—B. c. by Bathampton—Belle of Butte

Went to post at 1:40. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving to the limit; second easily. Beautiful Bill was strongly ridden and won by it, but it was a tight fit. Isaline was best and a stronger boy would have won with her. Red Cherry ran consistently, as did Formatus. Morelia showed speed and likes the mud. Tekla, last at the start, made up ground in the home stretch.

Scratched—15860 Dreadnought, 107; 16710 Caesar Young, 107; 16709 Tom Sharkey, 104; 16730 March Seven, 102.

Overweights—Beautiful Bill, 5 pounds; Red Cherry, 5; Formatus, 2; St. Germain, 2; La Amiga, 3.

Winner—B. c. by Phoenix—Glen Hop.

Went to post at 2:05. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Cormorant was a mud marvel today and perhaps a dozen pounds the best. Sly is good in such going, but was outclassed. Charles Label finished gamely. Ben Ledi was poorly piloted and too much used. Jockey Bill ran his race. Royal Prize dislikes mud.

Winner—B. g. by Keyser—Edith B.

Went to post at 2:35. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a romp; second as easily. None Such is a crackjack in mud and went away from Orion without an effort as soon as the homestretch was reached. Orion did well for six furlongs, then his speed tapered off. Milt Young closed up somewhat in the last furlong. Los Prietos received a bungling ride and only showed speed in the homestretch. Joe Mussel ran badly under severe punishment.

Winner—Ch. c. by Salvator—Hot Spring.

Went to post at 3:00. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Lavator was best and is a wonder in gluey mud. Bullman took no chances but kept him going. Montallade ran consistently and finished strongly. Mary Kinsella had no excuses and could not get up. Sorrow showed all her usual speed but weakened in the stretch.

Scratched—16729 Rapido, 104.

month of August, but has only fourteen days
free from competition, as against seventeen last year. Brighton Beach clashes with its first eight days and Sheepshead Bay with the last six. The "big three"—the Coney Island and Brooklyn Jockey Clubs and the Westchester Racing Association—have substantially the same dates as last year, all they wanted, in fact. Brighton Beach has its usual season, and Washington, as heretofore, opens and closes the eastern racing campaign. Besides allotting dates, the Jockey Club transacted the following business:

On the recommendation of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association stewards
the horses Fifield and Oaklawn were reinstated
for steeplechase and hurdle races. The application of John O'Neil for the reinstatement of the horse Corn Cob was referred to the Steeplechase and Hunt stewards.

R. Williams, the jockey whose license was revoked for suspicious riding on the horse Maximo Gomez at Brighton last July, was granted a hearing, but no decision was rendered in his case. Frank D. Weir was reinstated. The following licenses were granted:

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private information. It seeks none. Its calculations over the horses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general performance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicited, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.

AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The American Sporting Manual of 1900 contains all racing records at large, revised and complete up to the end of 1899; four handicapping systems with directions for their practical application, a table showing how to compute bookmaking percentages, track records of all the recognized tracks of the country, the western and eastern scales of weights, tables showing the comparative speed of tracks, a complete list of pugilistic contests of 1899 of any consequence, trotting and pacing records at all distances and a list of the new 2:15 trotters of 1899.
Also a complete record of performances at all styles of billiards, together with scores of all the important matches and tournaments of 1899

Went to post at 3:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Potente's race was strangely in contrast with his last previous performance. He was a speed phenomenon today after avoiding the early pace. Dr. Sheppard closed strongly and ran a good race. Harry Thoburn got off poorly and ran to his best form. St. Casimir did not show his usual speed.
Vesuvius had enough after an early burst of speed.
